Upton Town Mayor, John Thompson, is looking forward to presenting marine industry MARINA OPERATIVES training awards to John Izod (29) and Alwyn Williams (45) of Upton Marina, at 10am, on the 4th of June 2005, at Upton Marina.

The Marina Operatives Course is aimed at professional marina staff such as dock masters, berthing and mooring administrators, yard assistants, and site care and maintenance staff, and covers all aspects of the marina business. The course is run and awarded by the British Marine Federation.

John and Alwyn both live in Upton, and have worked at Upton Marina for over ten years.

Walton Marine also owns Brundall Bay Marina on the Norfolk Broads, Walton Marina on the River Thames, and Pырford Marina on the River Wey. The family run business has over 25 years expertise in the marine leisure business.
